When it comes to "Netflix fads" - television shows that never got off the ground, or failed in the ratings, it's become a bit of a meme. Sure, there are some shows that lasted for only a few seasons or didn't meet expectations, but for the most part, they all have a short life. And according to Netflix Canada's latest quarterly report, the number of subscribers paying for the streaming service has surged to over 9 million. It was created by Noah Baumbach, the man behind the critically acclaimed films "Greenbergs of Fifth Avenue" and "The Squid and the Whale". Marriage Story was picked up by Netflix Canada on December 9, 2018 for a seven-episode limited series. According to the company, this is the first time a comedy series has been made into a TV show. Marriage Story will be released in Canada on December 10, 2019. It's scheduled to be the first non-documentary work to be broadcast by Netflix Canada. Hamilton (Netflix Canada) This show from Lin-Manuel Miranda is the musical comedy based on the life of Alexander Hamilton, the founding father of the U.S. It was picked up by Netflix Canada on February 22, 2016. The show is based on the history-loving Broadway musical "Hamilton". It takes place in the not
